Ayesha Miryam of Marimallappa PU College 4th State topper in Arts. Picture right shows Y.R. Prajwal of Vijaya Vittala PU College, the 4th topper in Science, being congratulated by his parents.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Ayesha Miryam said that she wanted to become an IAS Officer and she had public service in mind that made her to opt for arts instead of science and commerce streams. "I have scored well and this will make me realise my dreams. I loved arts and was always interested in writing competitive examinations to get through either the IAS or KAS. I had worked hard and expected to be a topper and the results have proved my efforts," she said thanking her family and teachers for their unflinching support.

Ayesha is the daughter of Zaheer Ahmed Khan and Tahira Begum, residents of Vishveshwaranagar in city. Zaheer is Senior Section Engineer in the Indian Railways. She scored 99 each in history, geography and economics, 95 in political science, 91 in English and 97 in Hindi. "I have not taken tuition even for a single day and I used to study for up to five hours a day," she said.

Other toppers too attribute their success to hard work and guidance from parents and teachers. Y.R. Prajwal of Vijaya Vittala PU College, who secured 593 out of 600 in Science with computer science as one of the options told SOM that science was his pet subject and he would like to pursue engineering in computer science.

Craving for quality

Having ungrudgingly neglected according importance and attention to quality of life, we find ourselves pre-occupied with concerns of quality applied to material matters namely a) consumer durables, b) electronic gadgets including mobile phones, c) dresses, d) food products as well as raw materials including perishables consumed daily, e) possessions such as two-wheelers as well as other automobiles and so on at a personal level, apart from services expected from functionaries in government and manufacturers of goods offered in the market, both of which have left much to be desired. As far as the quality of roads, constructed at enormously inflated costs using public funds, public buildings constructed by contractors who enjoy favoured status from the top brass in the government of the day, equipment and even medicines supplied to government departments under the lowest tender principle, less said the better. People have shown admirable tolerance and even acceptance of quality in its unlimited meaning as it has vanished into thin air.

The years following the two world wars witnessed hectic activity of rebuilding economy to restore normal life with the western countries taking lead. The concept of quality control of manufactured products took birth leading to the now-familiar-to-all field of Statistical Quality Control (SQC). One is prompted to hasten in remarking that quality of life is outside the purview of SQC.

Wailing about deterioration of both quality of life and that of all the aforementioned material matters is an unrewarding exercise. The extent of wantonly hurting quality befuddling people at large cannot answer the question 'why so?' Maybe, a part answer can be found in the avaricious human nature to amass wealth by hook or cook. The name of the game is : Grease the palm of the bureaucrats, grab tenders of public funded projects, inflate the cost estimates to astronomical proportions, expedite work with substandard materials and share the booty among all the stock-holders, not to forget the lion's share for the elected representatives adorning high posts in the government.

Quick fix solutions are being offered by public speakers of all hues to improve the quality of education, a term as hazy as the proverbial ghost. The nadir reached in the quality of water, air and land, clearly a making of the land's people themselves, is more talked about than acted upon to arrest the decline, barring the efforts of some active and committed NGOs like MGP.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

A senior faculty was retiring from service. In the office, the Secretary was talking with some of the other faculty members regarding the farewell function. He always considered me as a youngster since I had a few years of service left. Nevertheless, he informed me about the event. I was aware that the retiring colleague's husband was working in another department. So, I was confused: while the husband was in service, how did the wife get retirement? Without a second thought, I asked the question to the Secretary. Everybody started laughing. The Secretary said, "Retirement is based on the age of the person, and not the age of her husband." I said, "Yes, I know that, but her husband is elder than her, and should retire first." The Secretary said, "In this case, she is older." Shocked, I said, "It is a sin." They asked me why. I said, "Like a parent, a husband sometimes beats his wife to correct her mistakes. If wives are older, then beating an elder is a sin." Immediately, the others said, "Who said this?" I replied, "My grandpa." — G. Philomina in The New Indian Express.

The bottle cap alley

Austin: Bottle Cap Alley is a unique roadside attraction located at the north edge of the Texas A&M University campus, in College Station Texas. As the name suggests, it is paved with hundreds of thousands — by some accounts, millions — of beer and soda bottle caps.

No one knows exactly how the tradition of paving the 50-meter-long by 2-meters-across alley with metal caps began, but seeing as it is located between the iconic Dry Bean pub and the Dixie Chicken restaurant, some people believe that it started out as a dumping site for the two establishments. It is estimated that the tradition goes back four decades. Bottle Cap Alley was officially recognised as a local attraction in the early 2000s. They installed a large sign over it, added lights to visit at night and began promoting it as a part of the local sightseeing tour.

Art in cups of Coffee!

Seoul: The latte art scene in Korea is growing at an astonishing rate, and young Lee Kang Bin is one of the talented baristas spearheading the movement. The masterful designs he is able to freehand on cups of latte have earned him tens of thousands of fans on Instagram as well as a judge's seat at numerous latte art competitions around the world.

Armed only with a thin metal rod and a palette of food dyes, Lee Kang Bin can turn a bland cup of latte into a stunning masterpiece. From drinkable recreations of famous paintings, like Van Gogh's "Starry Night," to detailed cartoon characters and portraits, there's virtually nothing he can't draw on milk foam.

"I wanted to surpass the limitations of traditional latte art by introducing colours and a wider range of designs," Lee said about his motivation. His food-dye based latte art is known as CreamArt, and has attracted a lot of attention among Korean baristas, many of whom study under Lee, and fans of all things cool, who follow his latest creations on Instagram.

He has even reserved a part of his pension to help poor students. 75-year-old Sangappa hails from K.R. Nagar and has served as a teacher in Mysuru, Hassan and Mandya. His simplicity and down-to-earth character was illustrated at the wedding of his daughter where bicycles and sewing machines were distributed to poor students. Road works at snail's pace inconveniencing public

Sir,

The road repair works started over a month ago from Vivekanandanagar Circle has been going on at a snail's pace inconveniencing the residents.

On one side, the already started metalling work from Vivekanandanagar Circle is still to be asphalted and several tankers of water is wasted to spill over the metalled portion when there is acute shortage of water in many parts of the city.

The remaining road repair work is half-done with the land-losers preventing any widening work until the MUDA settles their land compensation claims.

The local MLA and the MUDA officials have not been evincing any interest despite several complaints from the citizens. At present the residents are taking alternate roads which are very narrow.

The 2nd phase of road work towards LIC Colony and BEML Layout is to be carried out urgently as the road is in a very bad shape with deep pits.

Will the authorities concerned visit the place to speed up the process and get the work completed without any further delay.

Jana-Mana tomorrow

DC holds preliminary meeting in city

Mysuru, May 12- Marking 4 years of completion of the State Government, the district administration has organised 'Jana-Mana' programme at Kalamandira here at 11am tomorrow (May 13). PWD and District in-Charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa will preside over the programme and interact with the beneficiaries.

DC D. Randeep held a preliminary meeting in this regard at Jaladarshini Guest House here yesterday.

Addressing the meeting, Randeep said that the Jana Mana programme provides a platform for beneficiaries of various schemes such as Anna Bhagya, Ksheera Bhagya, Krishi Bhagya, Ksheera Dhare, Pashu Bhagya, Vidyasiri, Rajiv Arogya Bhagya, Shadi Bhagya, Vasathi Bhagya etc. to come up with their opinions.

At the last year's Jana Mana programme, the beneficiaries had asked for more than 5kgs of rice per unit and the Government taking this into consideration, hiked rice quantity to 7kgs per unit. Similarly, the children would get milk at schools for 5 days a week instead of the earlier 3 days a week, which was announced in the State budget, the DC said and added that this was due to the effect of Jana-Mana programme.

Food and Civil Supplies Deputy Director Dr.K. Rameshwarappa, Veterinary Department Deputy Director Dr. Prasad Murthy, Horticulture Deputy Director Manjunath, Akshara Dasoha officer Uday Kumar and other officials attended the meeting.

BJP 'charge-sheet' lists failures of State Government

Bengaluru, May 12- The State BJP on Thursday accused the Congress Government of failing on all fronts and not living up to the aspirations of the people during the past four years.

Speaking after releasing a 64 page booklet, termed by the party as a 'charge-sheet' on the failures of the Congress Government in the past four years, State BJP President B.S. Yeddyurappa said that the Law and Order in the State has completely failed with crime and extortion rates witnessing a drastic rise across the State.

Alleging that the Siddharamaiah Government had made false claims on release of funds for irrigation projects, Yeddyurappa said that the Government had failed to disburse the input subsidy released by the Centre. Of the Rs. 1685.2 crore released by the BJP led Union Government, the State Government is yet to disburse over Rs. 800 crore of this fund, he added.

Stating that Karnataka had gained the dubious distinction of being the most corrupt State in the country, according to a recent survey, Yeddyurappa trashed Siddharamaiah's claims of corruption free governance.

Asserting that the Government had released only Rs. 41, 439 crore out of the Rs. 50,000 crore announced in Siddharamaiah's first budget in 2013, of which Rs. 32,326 crore had been spent during the past four years, Jagadish Shettar alleged that the Government had back tracked on the promise of annual spending of Rs. 10,000 crore in Krishna basin alone.

Shettar also said that Karnataka stands second in the Country in the number of farmers suicides, with as many as 2, 573 farmers ending their life during the Congress regime.

Claiming that the Siddharamaiah Government was digging its own grave, both the leaders said that the Congress Government will be washed away in the 2018 Assembly Polls.

Unburdening our PUC Students

The most eagerly awaited PUC results are out; ending what can perhaps be called the longest and most painful wait of their lives for all the students who appeared for the examination and their parents too. While they bring much cheer to some they also bring much anguish to others. That is why alongside the stories of rejoicing youngsters we see sad reports in our newspapers of many not-so-successful students ending their lives in depression. This is also the time when we see colleges and coaching academies issuing huge and often centrespread advertisements in all newspapers with photos of their students who have excelled.

So the interesting and funny part here is that irrespective of who wins or who loses the race, the time of the PUC results is the time that brings the maximum happiness to all newspaper publishers who become the real winning horses!

A strange thought always used to come to my mind whenever I saw these ads. I used to wonder why many students seem to have such sad expressions on their faces when they have actually given their photos to the managements for insertion in ads that proclaim their outstanding success. I always felt that they should actually be flashing their best smiles in them. This was until a friend who is a college lecturer, told me that these photos are the same photos that the managements collect at the time of admission for issuing identity cards to their students.

Now, because these rather grim faces look so inappropriate in happy announcements I have a suggestion here. Colleges and coaching centres should start collecting two sets of photos — one with the formal look for the identity card and the other with a beaming expression for insertion in the ads in case the students make it to the top rung!

Leaving humour aside, I have some serious issues too that bother my mind. While the PUC College managements claim that it is the excellence of their infrastructure and staff that transformed ordinary mortals into super-human beings, the coaching academies proclaim that it was their focused approach that did the trick. Afraid of being left behind and consequently missing the bus, most students who are serious about achieving their goals enrol themselves at the best colleges and also at the most reputed coaching centres. It is only a handful of students who do well on their own with just what they are taught in their colleges without joining any kind of coaching facility.

Interestingly almost all of them are from rather poor families who can ill afford the high cost at which all extra coaching comes. Very often many students after completing their stint at colleges and coaching centres during the academic term also join 'Crash-Course' centres during the holidays to get their final dose of horse power to break the sound barrier, like jet engines! For this they often go to far-flung places and while they used to stay at Paying Guest facilities earlier, many coaching centres now include food and accommodation too in their packages.

For PUC students of the Science stream practically all their holidays are written off for a whole year. Their weekends too are spent cramming for the D-Day because both colleges and coaching centres hold extra day-long weekend sessions. These days we see that even if there is just one PUC student in the family everybody in the family is forced to forgo his or her holiday and all other engagements like weddings and other functions. Most tuitions and coaching classes necessarily start at very unearthly hours, sometimes at five in the morning and end late in the evening. After that the students have to spend considerable time again at home till late in the night, going through their day's lessons.

Sleep, the most essential daily break that everyone needs to be in a state of good health takes a back seat. That is why we often see many students dozing on the back seats of their vehicles as their parents ferry them from one class to the other! All this entails a great deal of effort which can be very stressful and taxing. It is certainly not a healthy thing for our youngsters. It makes them cheerless zombies for a whole year which is very cruel if not entirely despicable.

As a doctor I have seen many bright students and their parents being reduced to tears unable to bear the pressure of being in the race. Many students come to me with stress related psycho-somatic symptoms like abdominal pain, nausea, loss of appetite or diarrhoea. Many complain of lack of sleep, forgetfulness and confusion. My other doctor colleagues too tell me that they too have a flood of such cases during exam times. We cannot treat them with tranquillisers and sedatives because of their young age and also because they need all the alertness at their disposal to do well in their studies.

To end this misery, I have a suggestion which I am putting forth although at the risk of opening a Pandora's Box. Why should we not make the PUC course an open-study course without the need for enrolment and mandatory attendance at a college? Students who do not wish to take competitive examinations and who just wish to enter degree courses can do so by studying at regular PU colleges. Students desirous of getting their coaching at centres of their choice instead of spending their time, energy and money on two parallel courses can then directly appear for and pass the PUC examination and then take the entrance tests for their respective professional courses. This will reduce fifty percent of their burden.

The cancellation of the dozens of other Medical Entrance Tests after the adoption of NEET has helped students similarly and it is therefore now being extended for admission to engineering courses too. Even if it seems a little too unconventional I think it is time to bring in some much needed reform that can unburden our students for whom the PU is now more of a curse than a course!

Do you own a Benz, Audi or BMW? Then guard its logo

Mysuru, May 12 (RK&KS)- Owners of swanky cars are losing sleep over a new kind of robbery as miscreants, who were earlier stealing music systems, speakers and other items from cars, are now targeting logos of luxury cars such as Benz, BMW, Audi etc., in city.

It has now come to light that miscreants, who steal the logos of parked luxury cars, are selling them at scrap yards (gujari). Those who buy these logos from the miscreants are selling them for higher price and making huge profits, which has become a business now, said a person who wished to remain anonymous. He alleged that despite trying to lodge complaints, the cops were not registering the complaint due to lack of proof.

If experts are to be believed, youngsters might be doing it for their personal collection, but increasing practise also hints at the possibility of an organised gang at work.

Auto experts claim that such logos can be bought at half their prices at the scrap yard.

Mysuru, May 12 (RK&VNS)- A State Bank of India (SBI) ATM kiosk attached to the Mysuru City Corporation branch, located at Varaha Gate of the Mysore Palace, was completely gutted in an accidental fire that broke out early this morning.

Bank sources said that the ATM was loaded with Rs. 5 lakh cash yesterday by the agency which was also gutted in the fire. However, the exact amount was yet to be known.

The fire not only damaged the ATM, but also damaged the electrical wires of the ticket counter opened specially for senior citizens on the left side of the ATM. The security room was also damaged in the incident. Soon after noticing the fire, the Palace Security Guards informed the fire department who rushed to the spot and doused the fire.

Devaraja Police Inspector S. Nagesh and staff visited the spot and conducted mahazar along with the fire department. The officials said that it was the first time that such an incident had taken place at the Palace ever since the ATM was installed at the Varaha Gate in 2014.

Setback for Gandhis in National Herald case

New Delhi, May 12 - The Delhi High Court today allowed the Income Tax to launch an investigation into Young Indian Private Limited in the National Herald case. The Gandhis are directors in the company. "You can't be arrogant," the Bench said, adding that Young Indian Pvt. Ltd. must submit its tax documents.

Earlier, a Patiala House Court had allowed an investigation in the case, which was then challenged in the Delhi High Court.

The case pertains to a private criminal complaint by BJP leader Subramanian Swamy, who has accused the Gandhis and others of conspiring to cheat and misappropriate funds by paying just Rs. 50 lakh through which Young Indian Pvt. Ltd. (YI) obtained the right to recover Rs. 90.25 crore which Associate Journals Limited (AJL) owed to the Congress. The Gandhis and other accused — Motilal Vora, Oscar Fernandes, Suman Dubey and Sam Pitroda — have denied the allegations levelled against them.

II PUC: City toppers

H.S. Hamsashree

Ananth N. Rao

Soubhagya

G.V. Tanushree

Prajwal has scored 100 each in physics, chemistry and computer science.

"I used to focus on my studies since Day 1. I have cleared JEE Mains and waiting for CET results to get into engineering. My achievement would not have been possible without the guidance and support of my parents and teachers.

Prajwal is the son of Y.R. Raghu and K.R. Mala, residents of Kuvempunagar. Raghu works in the Central Sericulture Research and Training Institute while Mala works for L&T.

H.S. Hamsashree from Marimallappa College is among the topper in Commerce stream with a score of 100 each in statistics, mathematics, business and accountancy (593).

"I want to become a Charted Accountant and I have enrolled for the foundation course. I will finish my graduation too," he said. "I used to study for about 5 hours a day and there was no pressure from parents. The college too had conducted preparatory examinations five times and that too helped me," she said. Hamsashree is the daughter of Praveen, a businessman and Anupama who is a housewife.

G.V. Tanushree, also from Marimallappa College has scored 588 marks and 100 each in physics, chemistry, mathematics and electronics while she secured 98 in Sanskrit and 90 in English and is set to enter the Indian Air Force after completing her engineering. Her parents G.C. Vikramraj and K.C. Jyothi live in Periyapatna and Tanushree stayed in a hostel at Saraswathipuram to pursue her studies.

Soubhagya of Marimallappa College has topped the institution in Science stream (589). Her father, who was employed in the KSRTC, expired when she was in primary school nearly seven years ago and the family had to undergo financial difficulties. However, lack of financial security did not discourage Soubhagya and she has secured 100 out of 100 in physics, chemistry, mathematics and biology and secured 94 in Kannada and 95 in English.

"I used to study about six hours a day and also went for tuition but my mother's and teachers' encouragement was the other factors besides my hard work," said Soubhagya. She wants to become an IAS officer after completing her engineering.

Ananth N. Rao of Vijaya Vittala College has scored 590 out of 600 marks in the science stream and he did not go for any tuitions.

He is the son of S. Narayanarao and V. Lakshmi, residents of Kumbarakoppal. "I used to study with a group of friends and we used to clear all doubts with our teachers," he told Star of Mysore.

II PU pass percentage hits a 6-year low

Mysuru district records a pass percentage of 59.03 to secure 14th place in State

Bengaluru, May 12 - The Second PU pass percentage hits a six-year low at 52.38 percent and girls with 60.28 percent have outperformed boys. The results were announced in Bengaluru yesterday by Primary and Secondary Education Minister Tanveer Sait and PU Board Director C. Shikha.

This is the lowest pass percentage in the last six years and marks a drop of 4.82 percent compared to last year. Out of the 6,79,061 students who appeared for the exam, 3,55,697 lakh have passed. Minister Tanveer Sait attributed the dip to more stringent examination reforms initiated this year.

Primary and Secondary Education Minister Tanveer Sait and PU Board Director C. Shikha during the press meet yesterday.

In 2016, 57.2 percent students passed, in 2015 it was 60.54 percent, in 2014 it was 60.47 percent, in 2013, 59.36 percent students passed and in 2012, 57.03 percent students had cleared the examinations.

Srujana of Mangaluru Science topper-596

Radhika of Udupi Science topper-596

Srinidhi of Bengaluru Commerce topper-595

Chaitra of Ballari Arts topper-589

In keeping with the usual trend, girls with 60.28 percent outperformed boys, who were 15.5 points behind them at 44.74 percent. Udupi (90.01), Dakshina Kannada (89.92) and Uttara Kannada (71.99) secured the top three slots while Bidar (42.05) was at the bottom. Kodagu bagged the fourth place with 70.83 percent and Chamarajanagar stood at 9th place with 65.34 percent.

Mysuru district has recorded a pass percentage of 59.03 to secure 14th place in State, a 3.34 percent less than the previous year. The pass percentage in 2016-17 was 62.09. A total of 29,565 students had appeared for the II PU examination, held from March 9 to 27. Out of them, 17,533 have secured pass marks. As many as 17,684 boys and 18,694 girl students had appeared for the examination. Of them, 7,929 boys and 11,282 girls have passed the exams.

ARTS STREAM PERFORMANCE POOR

The performance by students in the Arts stream has been poor with pass percentage standing at 35.05 this year which is 7.07 percentage points lower than that of the last year. 60.09 percent students have passed in commerce and 60.71 percent students have passed in Science. The performance of arts students has been consistently poorer than that of students of other streams. In 2016, the pass percentage had dipped by 9 points from that of the previous year.

While Tanveer Sait claimed that randomisation of colleges where students took the exam was responsible for a fair examination process, educationists said the decline in the pass percentage was because no grace marks were allotted during the evaluation stage.

On poor pass percentage of Arts students, Shikha said that a majority of students pursuing Arts hailed from rural areas. Many of these students work while they are pursuing their Pre-University course to augment the income of their family and this might be the reason for the poor performance.

As many as 10,936 II PU students have scored 100 percent in 22 subjects in all this year. Last year, the number stood at 10,001.

The number of colleges with zero pass percentage has increased from 91 last year to 132 this time.

Meanwhile, the number of colleges with 100 percent results has declined to 37 from 41 last year.

Colleges with maximum 100 percent results and zero pass percentage are in the unaided category. While 127 colleges have zero pass percentage, 32 unaided colleges have 100 percent passes.

Minister Tanveer Sait said they would initiate stringent action against colleges that have registered poor results. He, however, said closing down these colleges was a "drastic" measure and was not feasible.

Mysuru, first City in country to introduce single entry smart cards for tourist spots

Mysuru, May 12 (RK&NNN)- Mysuru city has many firsts to its credit and in line with this distinction, for the first time in the country, Single Smart Card for entry to four tourist spots would be introduced by the District Administration and the Tourism Department in two months, said Janardhan, Deputy Director of Tourism Department, here this morning.

This is in sync with the State Tourism Department which is planning to introduce the Smart Card that can be used as a ticket at all tourist destination across the State.

The four tourist places where the Smart Card could be used are the Mysuru Palace, Zoo, Karanji Lake and Chamundi Hill. The tourists can purchase the tickets online and even through their mobile phones. The e- tickets of all the four places would be integrated into one Smart Card. The tourists will then avoid the hassles of standing in queues and can directly enter the tourist places, said Janardhan.

The four places that have been chosen come under the District Administration and hence the implementation of Smart Cards becomes easy. The other nearby tourist destinations like Srirangapatna and Nanjangud come under different administration and right now to include them would lead to delay in the introduction of the Smart Card, he said.

The software to introduce the Smart Cards has begun and the department is in touch with the banks concerned to start the process, he said.

According to Naveen Raj Singh, Secretary, Tourism Department, though the Centre is planning a similar initiative, Karnataka will be the first State to introduce it independently by the year-end. Meanwhile, Mysuru would be the first city in the country and in the State to introduce single entry smart card for tourists, said Janardhan.

Daredevils to face Supergiant

New Delhi, May 12- The two points available for the taking are more valuable to Rising Pune Supergiant rather than hosts Delhi Daredevils in today's match to be held at the Feroz Shah Kotla in Delhi.

Before their 4-day break, out of which they're emerging, RPS had established their longest winning streak, winning four matches on the bounce. Steve Smith's team will be keen to extend that to five and thereby confirm their progress to the playoffs. RPS have turned their season around brilliantly; they had won only one of their first four matches, but then clinched wins in six of their next seven matches to become playoff contenders. RPS have one more opportunity to seal that playoff berth after this, but they'd rather do it in this game than go into the final league match with the pressure of a knockout clash.

RPS will have to overcome one huge handicap; they will have to fill in the void created by the absence of Imran Tahir, the team's leading wicket-taker, who has parted ways to join up with his national team.

The Delhi Daredevils are not in contention for a playoff spot, but the young team will want to finish the season on a high. DD have had a roller-coaster season; there have been some mind-blowing performances (like the chases against the Gujarat Lions) as well as some disappointing lows (being bowled out for 66 and 67). Which DD side will show up on Friday?

Mysuru, May 12 - The Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) of Mysuru is numero uno among all the electricity supply corporations in the State and sixth in the nation, according to Investment Information Credit Rating Agency (IICRA) ratings released for the year 2015-16.

The survey conducted by the Union Energy Ministry through various expert agencies, audits the electricity supply corporations under various aspects including the power generation and distribution companies across the nation.

During the survey, companies are checked under various parameters including the technical and commercial losses, targets achieved in purchase of power generated from renewable energy sources, demand for funds from various agencies including State Government, progress in recovery of revenues, achievement in meeting deadlines for submission of annual account reports among others.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Munigopalraju, CESC Executive Engineer (VV Mohalla Sub Division), said that the consumers played an important role through their continuous support and co-operation. Stating that consumers must continue to extend their co-operation, he added that the CESC had been successful in stopping illegal connections and leakage of electricity apart from supplying uninterrupted electricity to the industries, IP sets and domestic connections.

Munigopalraju also said that CESC MD Kiran had taken personal interest to see that every parameter was fulfilled.

During the audit held in 2013-14, CESC stood in the 19th position at the National-level and 3rd in the State. During the audit held in 2014-15 it has reached the eighth place at the National-level and retained the third place at the State-level.

Legislative Assembly Polls-2018

JD(S) appoints Party Observers

Mysuru, May 12- The Janata Dal (Secular), which has been gearing up for Legislative Assembly Polls scheduled for next year, has appointed Party Observers in all 30 districts across the State to strengthen the party at the grass-root level.

The Observers have been given the responsibility of appointing that party office-bearers at the district, taluk and panchayat levels and they have been asked to complete the process by end of this month.

It is said that the party decided to appoint Observers to show that JD(S) believed in decentralisation of powers and it was not H.D. Deve Gowda or H.D. Kumaraswamy, the only decision makers.

JD(S) has also appointed a five-member Supervisory Committee headed by MLA Suresh Babu to oversee the functioning of the Observers.

Sources added that the party had put on hold the announcement of the first list of 150 candidates for the upcoming Assembly Polls as office-bearers in some panchayat and taluk levels had to be appointed.

Cap on movie tickets at multiplexes removed on weekends, holidays

Mysuru, May 12 (NNN)- The Karnataka High Court yesterday (May 11) stayed the price of multiplex tickets capped at Rs. 200 by the State Government. It stated that the price cannot be regulated on weekends and public holidays.

Reacting to the interim-order passed by Justice P. S. Dinesh Kumar staying the government order for three weeks till the next day of hearing, Vaishali Hanumanthu Padaki of DRC Cinemas said, "The FICCI Multiplex Association of India had approached the court seeking quashing of the government order interfering with 'Dyanmic Pricing' for movie tickets on weekends and public holidays . If the order is implemented it would cause huge loss to the multiplex owners."

Asked if the removal of capping on weekends and holidays made any difference to multiplexes in Mysuru, she said that it benefited them, as earlier they themselves had capped it at Rs. 180 on holidays and weekends. Now, with the government capping it at Rs. 200 for Kannada movies and for non-Kannada movies it is Rs. 200 plus tax that amounts to Rs. 264 (though we collect Rs. 260 as it is difficult to get Rs. 4 change), it has worked out well for us, she added.

Earlier, the ticket price on weekdays was Rs. 150 and it would go up on weekends and holidays. "In fact every Tuesday we used to charge Rs. 130. The dynamic pricing policy was there for five years in our multiplex," said Vaishali.

"If the content of the movie is good people will come and watch it irrespective of the pricing of the tickets. Raajkumara, the Puneeth-starrer is running for the past eight weeks and still going strong. It is the first Kannada movie to collect Rs. 50 crore," she said and added, "if the content is bad then even if we price the ticket at Rs. 80 no one will come and watch."
